Cod-liver oil suggests consumption, which is almost unfortunate.

Its best use is before you fear consumption; when you begin to get thin, weak, run down; then is the prudent time to begin to take care, and the best way to take care is to supply the system with needed fat and strength. Scott's Emulsion of cod-liver oil, with hypophosphites, will bring back plumpness to those who have lost it, and make strength where raw cod-liver oil would be a burden.

Substantially only imitates the original.

TURKEY'S BAD PLIGHT

Rumors of Conspiracies in the Palace Continue.

The Condition of the Treasury Not Improved.

IN A CRITICAL STATE.

A Successor to the Present Sultan is Talked Of.

But One Sultan is as Bad as Another.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 9.—There is no change for the better in the political situation here unless it rests on the fact that the Ottoman bank has advanced the Turkish government the sum of $1,500,000, which will enable the new minister of finance, Sabri Pasha, to provide for the most pressing needs of the government. The latter, it would seem, consists in fitting out the army reserves just called out in the port's attempt to make some show of trying to restore order in Armenia, but there are so many other demands upon the Turkish treasury at the present moment that the money just advanced will not go a long way, even if it was placed to legitimate uses, which is not likely to be the case.

In the best informed circles here the situation is regarded as decidedly critical and important developments are expected within a short time.

The ambassadors of the powers do not regard the new Turkish ministry with favor; it is not expected to last long, and it is not thought that it will be able to do anything worth mentioning towards clearing the political atmosphere.

The rumor of palace conspiracies which have been in circulation for months past continue to be talked about. The name of the deposed sultan, Mohammed Murad, removed from the throne because he was alleged to be suffering from idiocy, is once more mentioned as being a likely candidate for the throne.

There are many people who believe the deposed sultan is quite as sane as the present ruler of the Ottoman empire, Abdul Medjid.

Then, of course, the name of the heir apparent, Mohammed Reshad, is mentioned as likely to shortly succeed his uncle, the present sultan, but that report has been in circulation for months past.

In fact it was said some time ago that the present sultan had offered to abdicate in favor of Mohammed Reshad, but it is added, that representatives of the powers did not look upon this as likely to prove any solution of the complicated situation and the matter was allowed to drop.

The difficulty does not rest in individuality; one sultan is about as bad or good as another; it is the system of government in the Turkish empire which is to blame for all the troubles, and until there is a decided change in this direction there will be no improvement in the condition of the Armenians, or of the Turks.

The appointment of the ex-grand vizier, Kiamil Pasha, decidedly a well meaning man, as viceroy of Aleppo, is regarded here as being only another way of sending him to exile. He may not be actually exiled, but he will not be allowed to return from Aleppo until he quits the port. He is charged with many things, but the sum and substance of which seems to be that he has been made a scapegoat for the sins and lack of mercy of others. The sultan had to do something, so he changed his grand vizier and turned over his cabinet. He may have gained some time by doing so, but that seems to be about all.

In addition to the exile of Kiamil Pasha to Aleppo, it is reported that a number of high personages have been exiled to Anatolia, but it is difficult to get at the truth in such matters, as people reported "exiled" sometimes find their way to the bottom of the Bosphorus.

The Turkish troops are being concentrated at Manisa for an expedition on Zetoun, as soon as the military preparations are completed.

Further private reports received here from Diarbekir estimate the number of Armenian victims of the recent massacres at 5,000.

It is believed the number is in excess of the actual total of those killed, but there seems to be no doubt that the victims are numbered by the thousands.

TO FIGHT SALOONS.

Army Organized in Missouri For That Purpose.

ST. JOSEPH, Nov. 9.—A. C. Cowles of this city, has returned from Columbia where he went to assist in the organization of a new auxiliary to the temperance cause of the state which is known as the Missouri Anti-Saloon Army, which will organize corps all over the state and fight the saloons. The organization is composed of both ladies and gentlemen. Mr. Cowles was elected one of the state officers and will assist in the work of organization.

Each corps will be in charge of a lieutenant, captain and sergeant, who are provided with a natty uniform. They make personal pleas with saloon supporters to quit and the whiskey dealers to shut up shop. The officers of the state are: H. P. Farria, Columbia, general commander; W. M. Goodwin, Kansas City, sergeant and recruiting officer; Dr. F. F. Netherton, Hannibal, chaplain; A. C. Cowles, St. Joseph, lieutenant; Mrs. F. T. Douglas, Clinton, quartermaster general.

Sumptuous Traveling.

NEBRASKA SILVER MEN.

They Are Not Satisfied With Their Showing at the Election.

OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 9.—Much interest has been created among Nebraska Democrats as a result of election returns, showing the relative vote of the two wings; Mahoney, administration candidate for Supreme court, received 14,500, and Phelps, silver man, 8,000. Both went on the ticket under the Supreme court ruling, as Democrats, and the silver men claim that this was unfair to their interests, and that it was not a proper test. The silver men now suggest that the silver question be submitted to a primary election in Nebraska, the regular Democratic committee and the bolting Democratic committee to agree upon primaries to be held at the same time and at the same places, and each voter to be called upon to express himself on the money question, and the State convention to instruct its delegates accordingly. If a majority of the Democrats of Nebraska are in favor of a 16 to 1 plank in the next national convention they are to be entitled to the delegation. If the majority of the Democrats in Nebraska are in favor of the present financial policy, then these Democrats to have a right to represent the State in the national convention.

This matter, they say, can only be determined by a primary election and the silver Democrats say they are not afraid of such an expression from the voters. They assert that if the gold men refuse to submit the question to a primary election they will be stopped from claiming to represent a majority of the Democratic voters. The opponents of the white metal have little to say on the subject, asserting that the election results indicate clearly that the silver Democrats are outnumbered two to one in Nebraska, and they think they have nothing to fear in future contests.

A BANQUET TO DEPEW.

The Distinguished New Yorker Entertained in Buffalo.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 9.—Never has this city seen a more representative body of citizens than assembled last night in the Buffalo Club to do honor to the Hon. Chauncey M. Depew. The dinner was tendered to Mr. Depew, not alone because of his prominence in affairs of commerce, but quite as much for the special interest he has always manifested in the welfare of this city. Mr. Depew delivered a characteristic speech.

He paid a warm tribute to two citizens of Buffalo, who he said, each in his time did right; the one (Elbridge C. Spaulding), in opposing limitless in the case of the currency, and the other, Grover Cleveland, in protecting the honest dollar. In conclusion, he said: "I want to express to you my profound appreciation of this unique and distinguished honor. You might have waited until I was dead and passed a resolution to be engraved upon my tombstone, but it is sweeter by far to enjoy today while living than to be decorated with epitaphs when gone."

SYMPATHY FOR CUBA.

Great Enthusiasm Displayed at a Mass Meeting in New York.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—The Cuban sympathizers in New York held a mass meeting last night at the Murray Hill Lyceum, which was a great display of enthusiasm. Juan Fraga presided. On the platform with him were Senors Thomas Palmar, who was recently appointed plenipotentiary delegate abroad for the Cuban revolutionary party; Enrique Trujillo, editor of El Porvenir; Gonzalo De Quesada, secretary of the Cuban junta; Senors Terreforte, Rivas and Cheon. In the balcony were Senors Cespedes and her daughter, and Senora Trujillo, president of the club, Ilyas De Cuba.

Senor Trujillo was the first speaker, and predicted that the liberation of Cuba is now only a question of a few months. Senor Quesada paid a glowing tribute to the memory of young Cespedes. The speaker's reference to Maximino Gomez evoked prolonged applause, as did also his recital of the deeds of valor of the insurgents.

General Thomas Jordan Dying.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—General Thomas Jordan is said to be dying at his home, 124 East Twenty-fifth street. General Jordan was a classmate of General Sherman and was chief of the staff of General Beauregard. At the close of the Mexican war he was the ranking officer, all the others in charge of the troops being dead or disabled, who had charge of the removal of the United States army from Texas. General Jordan was said to be the last of the United States troops to take his feet from Mexican soil after the close of the Mexican War.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., Nov. 9.—Albert W. Gridley of Batavia, Ill., aged 52, blew out his brains at New Orleans yesterday. He was the eldest son of General Asabel Gridley, a pioneer of Bloomington, who died in 1880, leaving a fortune of $1,000,000. Deceased had been a drinking man, but had taken the Keeley cure. He was highly educated. Of two sons and two daughters of General Gridley, Albert was the only one who had a child, a boy of 12, who, his uncle being childless, will inherit all but a very small portion of the immense estate.

WALLER MAY DIE.

He is Said to be in Extremely Bad Health.

All His Letters Are Written in a Despondent Tone.

HIS LAST LETTER.

Says He Never Expects to See His Family Again.

French Authorities Have Placed Him on Hospital Diet.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—A special from Washington says the family of ex-Consul John M. Waller believe that his health has been permanently broken by his confinement in French prisons. His letters are all written in a most despondent tone. In letters dated September 30, from Clairvaux prison, just received, Mr. Waller writes that he never expects to see his family again, and states that this may be the last letter they will ever receive from him. It is evident that his health is extremely bad, for the French authorities here transferred him from Clairvaux to Nimes and have placed him on hospital diet and allowance. It is expected that the State department will take some decisive action in the case before Congress meets, as Mr. Waller's attorneys have been instructed to file their brief at once.

War Cloud at Tahlequah.

VINITA, Ind. Ter., Nov. 9.—A message from Tahlequah states that much excitement and intense feeling between political factions is prevailing and bloodshed will result unless compromised. The conditions are similar to those of eight years ago when many men were killed. The National party is contesting the election of Sen. Mayes as chief on the Downing ticket, and the Indians are collecting in the capital armed to the teeth, determined to aid their friends.

Carlisle's Nephew Acquitted.

LYNDON, Kan., Nov. 9.—Dr. R. B. Mullens, a nephew of Secretary of the Treasury John G. Carlisle, was acquitted of the charge of murdering J. W. Blake. On the afternoon of December 27, 1894, Mullens and Blake met in a "blind pig" at Arvonia. Mullens shot Blake three times as a result of a quarrel that ensued. At the trial Dr. Mullens proved a good character and that he acted in self-defense.

Farris Against Concessions.

Looks Like a Hung Jury.

LEXINGTON, Mo., Nov. 9.—The jury in the Justice Krueger case up to 11 o'clock last night had failed to arrive at a verdict. Judge Ryland has gone home and little hopes of a verdict before morning are entertained. The probabilities all point to a hung jury.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 9.—While playing with a loaded revolver at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, John Burns, the 4-year-old son of James Burns, a real estate dealer, accidentally fired a bullet into his left breast, from the effects of which he died in a few minutes.

WEEKLY TRADE REVIEW.

No Indication Yet as to the Effect of the Election.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says: "It has been a broken week, and just after elections in the most important states, operations rarely have much significance. Business may be largely affected in time, but as yet there is scarcely any indication what the effect will be. The controlling power at present is the effort to readjust prices after the remarkable rise of last summer in important materials and products in the struggle of great combinations to prevent decline. The purchase of competing interests now gives the H. C. Frick company ownership of 11,686 out of 17,934 coke ovens in the Connellsville region, and practically control of more than three-quarters, and an advance in the price of coke to $2 is expected, as the Carnegie company has been buying up supplies at low prices for months in advance. Yet the price of Bessemer pig is lower, $14.75 at Pittsburgh, and billets are lower because there is scarcely any demand for rails at the combination price."

"Many woolen mills are closing to wait for orders, though the demand is fairly satisfactory for some dress goods and worsteds, and the Washington mills open on clay worsteds at 10 cents advance. But prices of these and most qualities of woolens are still uncertain, for manufacturers do not know yet what they have to meet."

"Wheat falls back with great reluctance from its summer rise of 50 cents, but has declined 14 cents for the week. Western receipts being 5,609,910 bushels, against 3,845,032 bushels for the same week last year. The belief in a crop much smaller than last year has led to actual receipts of 45,723,368 bushels in six weeks, against 30,440,005 last year, and Atlantic exports have been only 4,093,424 bushels, flour included, against 13,347,619 last year. The reports of winter wheat from some States are also better."

"Corn promises forward largely, receipts being more than double last year's, and nearly 1,000,000 bushels went abroad. The rapid marketing of supplies of wheat from Russia and Argentina, and the larger exports of corn from this country both tend to lead to a future demand for American wheat."

"Failures for the week have been 280 in the United States, against 261 last year, and forty-nine in Canada, against forty-two last year."

Robbed Express and Railroad Company.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 9.—Ruined financially, disgraced and in a fair way to serve a term in the penitentiary at the age of 28 years, is the plight of T. C. Smith, a married man and father of two children. He looked upon the wine when it was red, consorted with loose women and gambled on the green with $900 of the money of the American Express Company and the Rock Island railroad. Smith, up to two weeks ago, was the trusted agent for these companies at Dodge City, Kan., and his honesty was guaranteed by the American Security Company, who will have to make good his losses. He was taken to Dodge City last night.

TO FIELD'S MEMORY.

A Monument to be Erected to the Dead Poet.

To be Built by the Contributions of Children.

WAS THEIR FRIEND.

Idea Suggested in Frank Bristol's Funeral Sermon.

Monument Will be Located in Lincoln Park.

CHICAGO, Nov. 9.—Eugene Field is to have a monument erected by contributions from children. The idea was suggested in Rev. Frank Bristol's funeral eulogy, and was taken up by a circle of men who were close to the poet. The fund is already accumulating, and long before the birds and the bees of Field's verses shall return it is predicted that American children will have done for their friend what the English children did for De Foe.

The movement was started at a meeting in R. A. Waller's house. It is planned to have the monument placed in Lincoln park. Each newspaper is to have a representative on the committee. Each is authorized to receive money for the monument. There is to be no limit as to the sum, and the nickel from the child of humble circumstances, who has heard of "Little Boy Blue" or the trumpet and drum, will be as acceptable as larger amounts from the more fortunate.

The men who took the initial step in the movement were Melville E. Stone, Harry G. Selfridge, H. H. Kohlbas, Charles M. Faye, Robert A. Waller, Sisson Thompson and Victor F. Lawson. Melville E. Stone is to act as treasurer, and he reported the first day's subscriptions as $14.

It is expected that contributions will come rapidly so soon as the country shall become aware of the plan.

The Record printed this announcement in the column Eugene Field used to fill THE CHILDREN'S MONUMENT TO EUGENE FIELD.

"Some day, out in God's acre, where angels sing their 'Sleep, oh Sleep,' a monument shall mark the resting place of our great poet, and it will be built, as was Daniel Defoe's in London, by the loving, grateful contributions of the children of the land.—From the Rev. Dr. Bristol's funeral oration."

Contributions may be forwarded to the Chicago Record, 121 Madison street, Chicago, in which acknowledgments of receipts will be published from day to day.

A Flat Building Enveloped.

He hurried to the window that opened on the little four foot court and thrust his head out of it.

"Say," he yelled at the man in the next flat, "Did I hear you say that you were intending to thrash that boy of yours?"

"What's that to you?" asked the man in the next flat sharply.

"What's that to me?" he repeated in surprise. "Great jumping Jupiter! Don't you suppose I have any interest in the affair?"

"No."

"Howling dervishes! And here I've lived in the next flat to you for five months. Don't you suppose I have a right to display a little interest in an affair of so much general importance to us all? Can't I give an occasional bit of advice without being jumped on as if I were an interloper?"

"No one asked you for any advice."

"Of course not, but there are times when a man is impelled to offer it without waiting to be asked. I've sat here in my flat, sir, for the last five months and heard you threaten on an average of twice a day to lick the tar out of that boy, and until now I haven't said a word."

"Well, what if you have? He's my boy, isn't he?"

"Of course he is."

"Then I'll do what I please in the line of disciplining him, and I don't want any members of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children interfering either. I'll whale him till he can't walk, and whale you, too, if you try to stop me."

"Who wants to stop you?"

"Not in a thousand years. I am here to advise you to keep your word in justice to the neighborhood. I'm here in behalf of all the other tenants of the block to ask you to stop talking so much about it and wallop him good and hard just once. He needs it, and as a man of your word you owe it to him and the rest of us to live up to your promise."

Fortunately the court was fully four feet wide, or some one besides the boy would have been thrashed.—Chicago Post.
